

Gettysburg College

191ST COMMENCEMENT

SATURDAY, MAY 16, 2026

11:00 A.M.

PENNSYLVANIA HALL

NORTH SIDE

Gettysburg College was founded on April 7, 1832, by anti-slavery theologian Samuel Simon Schmucker. Five years later, the institution (then known as Pennsylvania College) moved into Pennsylvania Hall, built on land provided by Thaddeus Stevens, whose illustrious career in Congress included authorship of the 14th Amendment, which guaranteed full civil rights to citizens of all states.

When the Civil War erupted, the College stood in its midst. Elements of two great armies swept through campus on July 1, 1863, the first day of the decisive Battle of Gettysburg. Pennsylvania Hall became a hospital for hundreds of soldiers from both North and South.

On November 19, 1863, townspeople, students, and faculty marched to hear President Abraham Lincoln hallow the National Cemetery with his Gettysburg Address. David Wills, an 1851 graduate, invited Lincoln to deliver “a few appropriate remarks.”

Almost a century later, President Dwight D. Eisenhower settled in Gettysburg after leaving the White House in 1961 and served on the College’s Board of Trustees. He wrote his memoirs in what is today the College’s Admissions Office.

Today, Gettysburg College is a vibrant learning community that has produced prominent graduates in a wide variety of fields, including former White House Counsel Fred Fielding ’61, U.S. Congressman Ron Paul ’57, Nobel Prize-winning cancer researcher Michael Bishop ’57, former NAACP President and CEO Bruce Gordon ’68, five-time Oscar-nominated cinematographer Owen Roizman ’58, Chair of the Global Partnership for Education Carol Bellamy ’63, Newbery Medal-winning Maniac Magee author Jerry Spinelli ’63, leading sleep researcher Mary Carskadon ’69, McKnight Foundation President Kathryn Wolford ’79, and Emmy-award winning actor, stylist, author, and fashion guru Carson Kressley ’91.

In the spirit of global citizenship and community, Gettysburg College welcomes you in each language currently offered for study:

THE PRESIDENTIAL MEDALLION

The Gettysburg College Presidential Medallion and chain were created in 1978 for the inauguration of Charles E. Glassick, the eleventh president, by Norman L. Annis, former professor of art. The medallion features the College seal, three inches in diameter. The seal is flanked by two smaller medallions, one being the seal of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and the other depicting symbols of higher education. The one-inch medallions, which constitute the chain, list the past presidents and the dates they served the College.

THE COLLEGE MACE

Ceremonial occasions at Gettysburg College begin with the entrance of the College mace, carried by the College Marshal. The mace symbolizes the College's governing authority and is present only when the president is in attendance. It is used only at Convocation, the Midyear Graduates Recognition ceremony, the Baccalaureate service, and the Commencement ceremony.

The tradition of the mace derives from medieval England, when the mace was held by a bodyguard for dignitaries at ceremonial functions. As an ancient symbol of authority, it reminds us that the College is a custodian both of the enduring traditions of learning and of the power they bestow upon those who come to learn.

THE BEACHEM PORTICO

The portico on the north side of Pennsylvania Hall is properly known as the Beachem Portico, erected with funds given by the Alumni Association and dedicated to the memory of the College's first alumni secretary, Charles W. Beachem 1925. Gettysburg College's Alumni Association is among the oldest in the nation and particularly notable for having been formed within three years of the 1832 founding of the College. The Alumni Association of Pennsylvania College (as it was then known) was founded on Commencement day, September 16, 1835. There were 11 initial members, the graduates of 1834 and 1835.

PRESIDENT'S CHAIR

The President's Chair comes from the estate of Dr. F. William Sunderman Sr., a 1919 graduate of Gettysburg College. In 1983 he created the Sunderman Foundation for Chamber Music, which presents a concert series on campus each year. He was also a trustee emeritus of the College and the founder of its annual Henry M. Scharf Lecture on Current Affairs. Upon Dr. Sunderman's death in 2003, his legacy provided for the establishment of the College's F. William Sunderman Sr. Conservatory of Music, which began admitting students in the fall of 2006.

STOLE OF GRATITUDE

The "Stole of Gratitude," a tradition which originated in 2004, is in part a gift from the Gettysburg College Alumni Association and the President's Office. The graduates will wear the stoles throughout the Commencement Exercises as symbols of their appreciation for all of the individuals whose support was instrumental in bringing them to this day. At the reception following Commencement, or at some other time, graduates may present the stole to someone to demonstrate their gratitude for that individual's role in their success.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic ceremonies, with their gowns, mortarboards, tassels, hoods, and maces are colorful traditions handed down from European universities of the Middle Ages. The first organized institutions of learning took form during the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, generally under the jurisdiction of the church. Academic regalia, as we know them today, have evolved from the robes, hoods, and caps worn mainly for warmth in unheated buildings by the clerics, monks, and priests who were the first students.

While European universities continue to show great diversity in their academic dress, American universities, in 1895, adopted a code of academic uniformity. The colors, designs, and opulence used in the tassels, hoods, velvet and satin trimmings, and robes designate everything from the level of degree held by the wearer, to his or her field of study, to the institution from which the degree was earned.

KATE O. ANDERSON '09

Songwriter

Commencement Speaker and Honorary Degree Recipient Doctor of Music

Kate O. Anderson '09 is an acclaimed songwriter and librettist whose work spans film, television, and the stage. A graduate of Gettysburg College with double majors in music and creative writing, Anderson has built a dynamic career at the intersection of storytelling and music, earning Drama Desk and Outer Critics Circle nominations for her theatrical work. She is widely known for her contributions to the Apple TV series "Central Park" and Disney Animation's "Olaf's Frozen Adventure," as well as for co-writing music featured in Disney's "Zootopia+" and other major productions.

At Gettysburg, Anderson developed the creative foundation that continues to inform her work, combining her passions for music, writing, and performance. Her time on campus helped shape her collaborative approach to storytelling and her commitment to artistic innovation.

Since graduating, she has premiered multiple original musicals, including "The Book Thief" and "Austenland," with productions staged internationally. Anderson's work reflects a deep commitment to imaginative storytelling, and she continues to inspire emerging artists through her success in the creative industries.

JAMES G. BASKER

Historian, literary scholar, and educator

Honorary Degree Recipient Doctor of Humane Letters

James G. Basker is a distinguished historian, literary scholar, and educator whose work has significantly advanced the study of the Enlightenment, the Black Atlantic, and the history of slavery and abolition. Basker is the Richard Gilder Professor of Literary History at Barnard College. He has served as president of the Gilder Lehrman Institute (GLI) of American History since 1997, where he has led national initiatives to strengthen history and civics education in K-12 schools. GLI partners with Gettysburg College to offer an online master's degree in American history.

Basker's scholarship spans literature and history, with influential publications on figures such as Samuel Johnson and anthologies documenting early antislavery writings. His work has helped bring greater attention to marginalized voices and the transatlantic dimensions of the abolitionist movement.

A former Rhodes Scholar, he has received numerous fellowships and awards and has taught at leading institutions in the United States and abroad. Through his teaching, writing, and public scholarship, Basker has demonstrated a lifelong commitment to expanding historical understanding and fostering informed citizenship.

SUSAN EISENHOWER

Policy strategist, author, and expert on national security, energy, and international affairs

Honorary Degree Recipient
Doctor of Humane Letters

Susan Eisenhower is a distinguished policy strategist, author, and expert on national security, energy, and international affairs. Over a decades-long career, she has advised government leaders, contributed extensively to public discourse through hundreds of published op-eds, and authored five books, including the widely acclaimed “How Ike Led: The Principles Behind Eisenhower’s Biggest Decisions,” which chronicled the approach to leadership by her grandfather, President Dwight D. Eisenhower. She is the founder of The Eisenhower Group, Inc., a consulting firm that provides strategic counsel to major corporations and organizations.

Eisenhower’s connection to Gettysburg College is both profound and enduring. For more than 15 years, Eisenhower has played a central role in leading programs at the Eisenhower Institute, which she co-founded and served as expert-in-residence and chair emerita. She has mentored more than 150 Gettysburg students through immersive seminars on strategy and leadership, guiding them to engage thoughtfully with complex global challenges.

Her work has helped bridge academic study with real-world application, reinforcing the College’s commitment to developing principled leaders. Eisenhower’s legacy at Gettysburg is defined by her dedication to students and her belief in their capacity to lead in times of global uncertainty.

CHAD SMITH

Julian and Eunice Cohen President and CEO of the Boston Symphony Orchestra (BSO)

Honorary Degree Recipient
Doctor of Music

Chad Smith is the Julian and Eunice Cohen President and CEO of the Boston Symphony Orchestra (BSO), one of the world’s leading cultural institutions. Since assuming the role in 2023, Smith has advanced a vision that honors the BSO’s long-standing tradition of artistic excellence while expanding its reach as a dynamic, inclusive organization. Over a career spanning more than 25 years, including his tenure as president and CEO of the Los Angeles Philharmonic, he has helped redefine the role of orchestras in contemporary society.

A classically trained vocalist, Smith brings a performer’s perspective to his leadership, emphasizing collaboration, education, and community engagement. He has curated innovative programming that bridges musical genres and artistic disciplines, creating new opportunities for audiences to experience classical music.

Under his leadership, the BSO continues to deepen partnerships across Boston and the Berkshires, positioning the orchestra as a hub for creative expression and learning. Smith’s work reflects a commitment to ensuring that the arts remain a vital and accessible part of public life.

BISHRUTI RIJAL '26

*Biology major
Neuroscience minor*

Student Speaker

Bishruti (Bish) Rijal '26 from Kathmandu, Nepal, graduates today from Gettysburg College with a major in biology and a minor in neuroscience. She acknowledges Biology Prof. Kazuo Hiraizumi and Psychology Prof. Sara Keefer for supporting her research interests.

Rijal took every opportunity Gettysburg offered her and turned them into ways to help others, think deeply, and grow in ways unimaginable to her four years ago. She has worked for the Center for Global Education (CGE), spent time as a research assistant in the Psychology Department, participated in summer research through the Cross-Disciplinary Science Institute at Gettysburg (X-SIG), studied abroad in Hungary, and engaged in programming through the Center for Public Service, Garthwait Leadership Center, and the Eisenhower Institute. She is a member of the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority.

As a residence coordinator for Stine Hall, Rijal was among the first group of Gettysburg students to enjoy the recent renovations that have enhanced Gettysburg’s residential experience. During her time at Gettysburg, Rijal also served the Office of Admissions as a tour guide, giving countless high school students and their families a student’s perspective on Gettysburg College.

Rijal is currently applying for jobs in the research tech industry, where she hopes to work in translational medicine or neurogenetics.

HONOR CORDS

The College awards the following honors to members of the graduating class. These senior honors are intended for students with four years of residence at Gettysburg College; grade point average computations are based on four years' performance. Honor cords will be worn by students receiving these honors.

Cum Laude

Awarded to those seniors who have an accumulative average of 3.5 through 3.69.
Orange honor cord.

Magna Cum Laude

Awarded to those seniors who have an accumulative average of 3.7 through 3.89.
Silver honor cord.

Summa Cum Laude

Awarded to those seniors who have an accumulative average of 3.9 or higher.
Gold honor cord.

In addition, a number of academic departments and organizations present graduates with honor cords.

Paul S. Gilbert 1922

F.E. Reinartz 1924

As soft - ly the eve - ning shad - ows are vei - ling the camp - us towers,
When - ev - er thy loy - al ones gath - er to wak - en fond mem - o - ry,

We come, — a band of good fel - lows, to sing in the twi - light hours;
Our thoughts shall be turned, Al - ma Ma - ter, old Get - tys - burg back to thee:

The sil - ver - y moon - light man - tles, the worn walls of chap - el a - new,
For ev - er am I thy debt - or and what ev - er else I may do,

The wind in the trees sweet - ly ech - oes, our prais - es of orange and blue.
I'll love, I'll de - fend, and I'll hon - or the glo - ri - ous orange and blue.
